Dear Sir,

I am sorry to inform you that since 22nd instant His Holiness the Jagadguru Sri Chandrasekhara Bharati Swamigalavaru has had his mental powers affected and the people here who have had experience of his past illness on previous occasions inform me that the present attack is of a mild character. All necessary arrangements have been made for His Holiness' care and comforts.

His Holiness is calm and is having some lucid intervals. His Holiness is also getting sleep off and on. He takes his baths and food satisfactorily at regular intervals. I am glad to say there is no violence or virulence, and I hope His Holiness will get over the present attack at an early date.

I shall write to you again in due course after further observation.

With my most humble resopects,

Yours sincerely,
